Thank you!
Are Thunder Valley and NRS the same?

Thanks Valois,

I was wondering about our revised draft referencing “Cheyenne & Arapaho” comments from March 15, 2017 and comments from Thunder Valley and Native Research Solutions. I don’t recall seeing any of those...

Hi Kimi,

Besides Oglala and Standing Rock Sioux Tribes, the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe is the only other tribe that provided comments. I have attached those two letters.

I have attached the spreadsheet where I divided up all the comments into different topics on separate work sheets.

The comments on treaty rights are on the work sheet labeled 3TribalRespTreatyRights.

The comments on sacred sites are on the work sheet labeled 5ConsultationCultSurvey. The term “sacred

Ex. 5 Attorney Client (AC)

The comments on the sacredness of the Black Hills are on the worksheet labeled 2GenConcernsNativeAmBlackHills

Just to provide a little background...

Most of the people who attended the public hearings and commented on these topics were at the Standing Rock protest against the Dakota Access pipeline. That was just wrapping up, so many people traveled from Standing Rock to our public hearings.

I also attached a document containing comments I had previously compiled on these topics.

I will review the notes from the consultation meetings pull out the notes on treaty rights, sacred sites and the Black Hill and compile them into one document.
